PC:

By this petition the petitioner has impugned order passed by Central Administrative Tribunal rejecting application of the petitioner for taking action under the Contempt of Courts Act. We need not go into correctness of that order, the Authority whose contempt was alleged by the application itself having held that there is no contempt.

2. In so far as the substantive right of appeal is concerned it is exercised by him and the appeal is pending before the Competent Appellate Authority. All rights are kept open for the petitioner to agitate the production of documents or consequences of such non production before the Appellate Authority. Since a definite statutory remedy is available to the petitioner, we see no reason to interfere. Petition rejected.
